URBAN FORESTRY PROGRAM SPEAKER SERIES

Mark your calendars for Feb 6th, March 5th& April 2nd

A forest may not be the first thing that comes to mind when you think of an urban area. Peterborough Green-Up is trying to change that with their new Urban Forestry Program, which promotes the benefits of trees in the city.

The program consists of a public education campaign, neighbourhood tree inventories, a school program, and native tree planting & remediation events.

Kicking off the public education campaign is a three-part speaker series on national, regional, and local urban forestry issues. Talks will be held from 7 to 9 pm at the Peterborough Public Library. They are free and open to the public.

- On February 6th, Michael Rosen from Tree Canada will talk about “Trees and Climate Change: The Carbon Offset Connection” – a national look at urban forests’ role in climate change and air quality.
- On March 5th, Bruce McGauley, retired urban forester from City of London will speak about “Treasured Trees: Growing a Green Heritage” – a regional look at species conservation issues and heritage tree programs.
- On April 2nd, Andy Kenney from the University of Toronto Forestry Dept. will speak about “Sustaining the Urban Forest: Starting a Neighbourhood Urban Forest Stewardship Program” – a local look at community initiatives and urban forestry policies.

All three evenings will include a panel discussion between the guest speaker, local experts and the audience. That’s right, expect to see experts from the Large Woodlands Conservation Cooperative, Kawartha Heritage Conservation, the City of Peterborough, and the PFN joining panel discussions to address climate change research, natural heritage conservation, and strategic planning initiatives.

As a series sponsor, the PFN will participate in the April 2nd panel discussion, and will have a poster display at all three evenings. Volunteers are needed to staff the PFN display. If you are available, please contact Chris Gooderham at urbanforest@cogeco.net

Peterborough Green Up gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the Ontario Trillium Foundation, and operates the Urban Forestry program in partnership with the City of Peterborough.

Notes from the Large Woodland Conservation Cooperative

The LWCC recently participated in a workshop, Managing Your Woodland for Profit, organized by the Peterborough Stewardship Council. Over three Wednesday evening sessions, and one day in the field, local woodlot owners received instruction on forest ecology, basic forestry concepts, forest management plans, sources of assistance, selling standing timber, and conservation issues such as the importance of interior habitat and the threat of invasive species.

On Thursday, January 31st, the LWCC will be hosting a conference to explore the relationship between municipal planning decisions and the conservation of large woodlands. Municipal staff and elected officials will be invited to Manvers Community Centre for presentations on climate change, ecological goods and services, significant woodlands, forest conservation by-laws, the Alternative Land Use Strategy (ALUS), the Eastern Ontario Model Forest, and of course large woodlands! The public is also welcome to attend this free event and can contact Gina Varrin at lwcc@trentu.ca for more information.

Call for raffle prizes for the Annual General Meeting on January 25th

Every year at the PFN Annual General Meeting we raffle off prizes donated by members or businesses in Peterborough and surrounding area. This is our first call for folks to donate raffle prizes. Funds raised during the raffle go towards supporting club activities as well as to covering off some of the costs incurred by hosting the AGM. If you have anything you would like to donate, or would like to canvass a local business for support, please contact John at 742-1524.

The Kawartha Club of the Ganaraska Hiking Trail has invited PFN members to join in the Winter (January-March) 2008 hikes, details listed below.

The Ganaraska Hiking Trail extends from Port Hope to Glen Huron, with two branches to Midland and Wasaga Beach for a total of 500 kms. There are nine clubs along the length of the trail that make up the Association. For more information about all the clubs please see the website: www.ganaraska-hiking-trail.ca

The Kawartha Club includes members from Campbellford, Keene, Peterborough, Lindsay, Millbrook, Fenelon Falls and many points in between. The Kawartha section of trail travels from just west of Omeme, north 76.7 kms to Moore Falls. The trail travels on railtrail, country lanes and forest trails as it meanders through the gently rolling countryside, through the towns of Lindsay and Fenelon Falls to the hamlet of Burnt River. North of Burnt River, the trail continues in more rugged terrain, crossing many beaver dams and running parallel to beautiful Corben Lake, a great lunch spot!

Note: Bring a lunch and drink for all weekend hikes unless otherwise noted.

Local Artist Kelly Dodge Donates Artwork to our AGM

Canadian artist Kelly Dodge regards her inspirations and artistic talent as gifts from God and considers it a great blessing to be surrounded by this natural world of beauty and discovery. Each of her paintings has something specific to say, communicating both emotionally and spiritually the essence of creation in simplicity and truth. Kelly demonstrates superb versatility with a wide range of pleasingly unpredictable subject matter.

In what has been a whirlwind career as a professional artist whose first show was in 2001, Kelly has achieved much recognition internationally. In 2003/2004 alone she was elected to full signature membership with the Society of Animal Artists, The Pastel Society of America and the Pastel Society of Canada. She also holds signature membership with Artists for Conservation, a community of world-class artists.

Primarily painting in pastel, Kelly is perhaps best known for her ongoing focus on birds often combined inspirationally with traditional Christian hymns. She has also garnered much popularity for a second series, pastel paintings portraying breathtaking views of the Northern Hemisphere constellations, two of which have been chosen in 2007/2008 for the Ducks Unlimited Canada National Art Print Program.

Her exhibition schedule includes such shows as the Southeastern Wildlife Art Exhibition, Charleston, S.C., Art for the Animal Kingdom, Bennington, Vermont, Natur'art, Montreal, the Easton Waterfowl Festival, Easton, Md., the Plantation Wildlife Art Festival, GA., the Buckhorn Fine Art Festival, ON., and the Rainforest Foundation UK's Friends of the Rainforest, London, England. Her paintings can be found in many collections at home and abroad.

Kelly resides in rural Lakefield and is a proud member of the Peterborough Field Naturalists.

To see more of Kelly's work you can visit her website at www.kellydodgeart.com

This year our AGM will feature another of Kelly's pieces in our silent auction:

Title: "Shine"

Artist: Kelly Dodge

Details: a limited edition reproduction, numbered and signed by artist

Retail Value: $350.00

Description: This piece was inspired by and composed based on the traditional Christian children's hymn "Jesus Bids Us Shine". The antiques date from the appropriate era and illustrate the theme of the hymn. The quill pen in the painting is a Trumpeter Swan feather.

It's time to renew your membership!

2008 PFN Membership
Fees are due.

Memberships can be renewed by sending a cheque ($15 student, $25 single, $30 family) to Don Pettypiece at 18 Parkview Dr, Peterborough, ON, K9H 5M6 (please indicate "for PFN 2008 membership" on cheque).

Memberships can also be renewed at the reception desk at the PFN Annual General Meeting on January 25th.

A membership in the Peterborough Naturalists Club gets you:

- a yearly subscription to the Orchid
- enrollment in the Junior Field Naturalists for your children
- notices advising you of interesting presentations and nature outings
- knowledge that you are supporting a long-standing local club focusing on the appreciation and conservation of nature

Membership fees are used by the club in a variety of ways, including: publication of the Orchid, organization of the Annual General Meeting, and in support of initiatives to research, rehabilitate, and protect nature in all its forms.

Explorer Sighting Software

- from Ontario Nature Network News, December 15, 2007, Submitted by Margaret Hull, Guelph Field Naturalists

The Guelph Field Naturalists (GFN) are pleased to announce the launch of the GFN Birder and Dragonfly Watchers Sightings Explorer Software. This new and innovative software is a listing program with a twist: location mapping! Not only will it keep your bird or dragonfly list, it will map the exact location on a fully integrated Ontario map.

Containing full street-level detail of the entire province of Ontario, and water features and major highways for the rest of Canada, no matter where you go, you'll know what you saw and when and where you saw it.

Use the integrated reporting features to generate a seasonal checklist, a monthly bird checklist or a number of more traditional reports. Share your sightings with the internet-based database and contribute to a comprehensive regional sightings list from all other participating users of the software. Use this large regional list or your own personal list and either explore all sightings or generate frequency maps based on the sightings for the entire province!

For more information, please refer to the Sightings Explorer major features list at <http://www.naturesbestcreations.com/explorer.htm>, or for a more in-depth review, see the on-line version of the help file at <http://www.naturesbestcreations.com/sehelp>. To explore recent sightings logged using the software, refer to the sighting explorer web at <http://jonbrierley.dyndns.org/explorer>.

The Sightings Explorer software is available for Microsoft Windows on Compact Disk from the Guelph Field Naturalists for a minimum donation of $40. Make cheques payable to: Guelph Field Naturalists and mail to P.O. Box 1401, Guelph, Ontario N1H 6N8 or pay by credit card on-line. Credit card donations are also accepted on-line through CanadaHelps, and you will receive your charitable donation receipt immediately by e-mail. Log on to www.guelphfieldnaturalists.org.

Wild Species 2005 Report Now Available

- from Ontario Nature Network News, December 15, 2007, Submitted by Dan McDonell, Environment Canada

Wild Species reports are released every five years by the Canadian Endangered Species Conservation Council. The newest report, Wild Species 2005, has been released and can be downloaded in English or French from the Wild Species website www.wildspecies.ca.

The report provides general status assessments for over 7500 wild species in Canada, using results from provincial, territorial and federal monitoring efforts.
