The Petroglyphs Butterfly count is one of hundreds coordinated every summer in Canada, the USA, and Mexico. For the past several years the count has been diligently coordinated by Jerry Ball. The Petroglyphs butterfly count is notable for the unusually high number of Dun Skippers spotted here, more than any other butterfly count. Find out more on our website www.peterboroughnature.org.

www.peterboroughnature.org

Author: Dylan Radcliffe
Source: Ministry of Natural Resources